Directions: List four important events from this book including details from the text. Explain the importance or significance of each event. You must use examples from the text to support your answers. Write your answers in neat, complete, and correct English in the sections below.

Example (from Number the Stars by Lois Lowry):

Event

The German soldiers come to the apartment where Ellen (who is Jewish) is being hidden by the Johansens. Ellen pretends to be a member of the Johansen family. The soldiers are suspicious because Ellen has dark hair, and everyone else in the family is blonde.

Importance or Significance of Event

Mr. Johansen shows the soldiers a baby picture of Lise Johansen with dark hair, and the soldiers believe the girl in the picture is Ellen. This event is important because it tells the reader how scary it must have been for Ellen and the Johansens. Ellen is now safe for the time being.
